POETRY.

The Yankee Lover's Soliloquy.

As thin as a hatchet I've grown,
And poor as Job's turkey, by golly;
I stand like a scarecrow alone,
Sad victim of love's melancholy!

I feel most confoundedly blue,
Life's rose is turned to a thistle;
My sweetheart has turned out untrue,
And sacked me as sweet as a whistle.

Though lively and keen as a rat,
And playful as any young kitten,
She has got the sharp claws of a cat,
And has showed 'em to me through the mitten.

Of our village girls she's the belle,
And plump as a partridge she grows;
Her lips for two cherries would sell—
Her cheeks are as red as the rose!

Like two bran new dollars her eyes,
Her nose is turned neater than wax,
Her bosom with Venuses vies,
Her hair—it is finer than flax.

I courted her day after day,
In the hope her affections to win,
But my trouble is all thrown away—
Like a fool I have been taken in.

I am laughed at by all of our folks,—
They expected a wedding to follow,
She has turned out a tarnation hoax,
The heart, like a pumpkin, is hollow!

As thin as a bean pole I grow,
And crabbed and cross as a bear,
My heart—it is love cracked—I know—
I shall lie down and die in dispair!

A GOOD DOG STORY.—Probably more marvellous stories have been told about the dog than of any other intelligent animal, not excepting the elephant. Here's one of the latest and best. The Carrollton, Ill., Press tells a curious story of W. C. Greaver having given a dog to a friend, who, to retain his acquisition, placed upon him a heavy chain and clog, which he could drag about with some difficulty.—In a short time, however, the dog disappeared, and could not be found anywhere, though an active search was made for him. During the time of his disappearance, it was observed that another neighbor's dog, when fed each day, would take a bone and carry it off, always going in the same direction. They followed him one day, and penetrated his secret. The dog first named, in attempting to make his way back to his old home, had jumped a fence and got his clog fast in some way, so that he could not get loose, and for two weeks he had thus been a prisoner. His former playmate and companion being unable to relieve him from his confinement, carried to him every day a portion of his food, thus preserving him from total starvation and a lingering death.—The bones scattered about his place of confinement testified to the devotion of his companion, but for which he must have perished, as he was out during the severely cold weather weeks ago, and was reduced to a shadow when found.

TOUCH NOT THE QUEEN—WOMAN HER OWN AVENGER.—About two years ago, one of the young citizens of Norwalk, Ohio, married a beautiful girl of the same place, and lived happily with her until last fall, when he departed for Pike's Peak, leaving his young wife behind him. To avoid the ennui which would naturally have assailed her in her temporary widowhood, the lady mingled freely with society never dreaming of harm; and was only reminded of the constructions which base minds are ever ready to put upon the conduct of the most innocent by a letter signed with a fictitious name, in which the contemptible writer informed her that he had seen and admired her at various parties since her husband's departure, and had noticed that she was very "gay;" but would breathe his "suspicious" to no one if she would consent to meet him at a certain place. Fired with indignation at the baseness of the wretch who thus insulted her, the young wife resolved to trace out the author, and teach him a lesson in good manners. Writing him a decoy note, and addressing it to the name given her, she placed it in the post-office, and watched to see who called for it. She had not waited long, when a spruce consequental young dry-goods snob of the place entered, and demanded the treacherous missive. It was promptly handed to him, and he was leaving the office, with triumphant smiles spread all over his face, when the indignant fair one seized him by the collar of his fancy coat, drew a substantial cow-hide from under her shawl, and gave him a scoring that settled up old scores with a vengeance. First he was frightend, then astonished, then thoroughly warmed up, and finally pleaded for mercy most lustily, avowing that he had not written "that letter," though no one had yet said that he had. The lady gave it to him, however, until she was too tired to strike another blow, and he sneaked off amid the laughter and jeers of the crowd which had collected to see the sport. That lady will be undisturbed in future and the man who owns her for a wife should be proud of her.

THE COLLEGE LIBRARY.—The library of Harvard College now contains about 120,000 volumes.

A Murderous Cannon Ball.

"When we came to a halt, there seemed to be a lull in the struggle, and no enemy was anywhere visible, nor was firing heard from any direction. The infantry, though within range of small arms from the town, were concealed by bushes, and the enemy were scarcely aware of their presence. But when our company came galloping up the road in full view, their attention was aroused, and we had scarcely checked our animals and exchanged a few words with the foot soldiers, when a column of smoke shot up from the wall in front. "Now look out!' exclamed some one, and I looked, but saw nothing to follow, and had turned my attention elsewhere, when I heard a hissing noise, as of something rushing swiftly past, and at the same time turf is thrown into the air, the horses start aside in affright, and outcries of pain and terror assail the ear. After a confused moment, I saw that the shot had struck in the line of infantry a few feet on our right. One man, the drummer of the party, was running about in the fluttered crowd, with his hand hanging by a shred, crying 'Cut it off! cut it off! D—n your souls, why don't some of you cut it off?" Another lay struggling on the ground, with the fleshey part of his thighs torn abruptly off, calling upon some one for God's sake to take him away from there. But the dismallest sight was a bloody shape, with face to the ground, fingers clutchiug the grass with aimless eagerness, and shivering silently with an invisible wound. Twisting convulsively, it rolled down into the road under our horses' feet and there this human form, which some call godlike, writhed and floundered like a severed worm, and disguised itself in blood and dust."

STRENGTH OF ICE.—From experiments lately made in Germany for the purpose of testing the strength of ice when a pond or river is frozen over, it appears that when its thickness is an inch and a half, it will just bear the weight of a single man; when about three inches and a half, it will bear detachments of infantry with their ranks rather wide apart; with a thickness of four and four-tenths inches eight-pounders can be conveyed over it on sledges; five and two-tenths inches will bear twelve pounders; eight inches will bear twenty-four pounders; and a thickness of twelve inches will bear any weight.

A BEAUTIFUL SENTIMENT.—The late eminent judge, Sir Allen Park, once said at a public meeting in London: We live in the midst of blessings till we are utterly insensible of the greatness, and of the source from whence they flow. We speak of our civilization, our arts, our freedom, our laws, and forget entirely how large a share is due to christianity. Put Christianity out of the pages of man's history, and what would his laws have been? what his civilization? Christianity is mixed up with our very being and our daily life: there is not a familiar object around us which does not wear a different aspect, because the light of Christian love is on it—not a law which does not owe its truth and gentleness to Christianity—not a custom which can not be traced in all its holy, healthful parts to the gospel."

THE LOST SHEEP.—A preacher of the Methodist Church was travelling in one of the back settlements, and stopped at a cabin where an old lady received him kindly. After setting provisions before him, she began to question him:

"Stranger, where mought you be from?"

"Madame, I reside in Shelby County, Kentucky."

"Madame, I am searching for the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

"John, John!" shouted the lady, "come right here this minnit; here's a stranger all the way from Shelby county, Kentucky, a huntin' stock, and I'll bet my life that tangled haired old black ram that's been in our lot is one of his'n?"

FAT MEAT MORE SOLID THAN LEAN.—Messrs. Laws and Gilbert, English agricultural chemists, have after long experiments established the fact that the proportion of solid matter is much greater in fat animals than in lean; that while in a lean ox the proportion of water is two-thirds, in a fat one it is often one less than half. This shows the economy of purchasing fat meat, although of course, the proportion of mineral and nitrogenous matter in lean beef is greater than fat

BY a steamboat explosion on a western river, a passenger was thrown unhurt into the water, and at once struck out lustily for the shore, blowing like a porpoise the while. He reached the bank almost exhausted, and was caught by a bystander and drawn out, panting.

"Well, old fellow," said his friend "had a hard time, eh?"

"Ye-yes, pre-pretty hard, considerin'. Wasn't doin' it for myself, though; was a workin' for one of the insurance offices in New York. Got a policy on my life, and I wanted to save them; and I didn't care."

BEAUTY.—Let me see a female possessing the beauty of a meek and modest deportment—of an eye that bespeaks intelligence and purity within—of the lips that speak no guile—let me see in her a kind and benevolent disposition—a heart that can sympathise with distress—and I will never ask for the beauty that dwells in "ruby lips," or "flowing tresses," or "snowy hands," or the forty other et ceteras upon which our poets have harped for so many ages. These fade when touched by the hand of Time, but those ever enduring qualities of the heart shall out-live the reign of Time, and grow brighter and fresher, as the ages of eternity roll away.

WE have seen mean men, and we have read of mean transactions, but the meanest thing we ever heard of occurred the other day. A little five year old lad this grass, dropped a half dime on his way to the candy shop, when a great loafing, lubberly fellow stepped up, claimed it as his property, and despite the tears and protestations of the boy, walked off with it. We hope he spent it for lightning whisky and that the coroner as held an inquest upon his carcass. If he is dead, we will put him on trial before a jury of his peers, twelve reputable salamander friends from the hottest location in Tophet, and if they don't condemn him to some hotter hole for his brutality, there is no justice in hell and no honor among thieves.—Louisville Journal,

A singular law-suit is going on in London, a gentleman having sued a confectioner for putting on too many portraits of Mr. Spurgeon upon a supply of bonbons he had ordered. He had ordered the lids of the bon-bons ornamented with portraits of celebrated living personages, and the confectioner had put five Spurgeons in each dozen. The plaintiff had no objections to a fair proportion of the Spurgeons in his sweetmeats, but he thought five out of every twelve was more Spurgeon than he or his guests could stand. The case was adjourned in order to obtain information as to the list of portraits from which the confectioner had selected.

A SHARP TRANSACTION.—An exchange paper states that a fellow in Venango county, Pa., profited in the following manner by the "oil excitement" now prevailing so extensively in the Western and North Western part of Pennsylvania. Be bored a hole on his land, poured a barrel of oil in it, and then called his neighbors to see the large yield. The result was that he sold his land for $2,000 in cash, pocketed the money, oiled his boots, and "slid."

A MISTAKE.—The Cincinnati Commercial, says: A doctor, who resides in one of our fashionable streets, on calling a gentleman who had been some time ailing, instead of drinking a glass of water, accidently took a drink from a tumbler containing the medicine which he had prepared for the sick man; he was not made sensible of his error till he found himself getting ill, and the patient getting better.

ELECTORAL COLLEGE FOR 1860—The total number of votes cast by the next Electoral College will be 306. Of this number the northern States will be 186; the southnern States, 120. Ntmbea to votes necessary to elect a President, 154.

THANKSGIVING morning a lady was summoned to her door to receive a splendid turkey. "Who sent it?" asked the lady. "I was told not to lisp," said the Hibernian.—"Ah, I can guess," responded the lady. "Be-dad, that's jist what I told Deacon Grant."

THE scaffolding which surrounds the walls of the New Custom House at New Orleans, cost fifty thousand dollars.—The money already expended on this building amounts to $2,500,000, and it will require $1,000,000 more to complete it.

A lawyer engaged in a case, tormented a witness so much with questions, that the poor fellow at last cried for water. "There,', said the Judge, "I thought you'd pump him dry."

A LIFE LOST FOR $12.—A German woman of New York lately killed herself because her husband refused to give her twelve dollars which she claimed.

WHEN is a plant like a hog? When it begins to root. And when is like a soldier? When it begins to shoot. And when is it like an editor? When it begins to blow.

LIBERAL.—Three gentlemen of Connecticut have each contributed $1000 towards the endowment of Oahu College, Sandwich Islands.

THE slaves owned in the Southern State number 4,000,000, and their value in money reaches the sum of $8,000,000,000.

THE

KNIGHT'S LANDING NEWS.

OFFICIAL COUNTY PAPER.

SATURDAY, APRIL 28TH, 1860.

The Close of the First Volume.

To our Patrons, Subscribers and well-wishers, we would say, that, the present number of our Paper, completes the first volume of the KNIGHT'S LANDING NEWS. This makes number 26. We in our salutatory promised to strive to advance the interests of our County.

Keeping ourself aloof from party politics; but remaining perfectly free to advocate any measure that we might think right and proper irrespective of party or party preferences, how far we have kept these pledges we leave an intelligent and impartial public to determine—honestly and confidently believing that the verdict thus rendered will not be in the least inimical or prejudicial to our merits (if we have any?)

We also pledged the people that we would keep the paper up and alive.—That the words "fail and can't" were not in our vocabulary.

We can say this much for our success, so far, and we do say it with some little pride and exultation, that, considering the obstacles that have been thrown in our way, it has more than met our most sanguine expectations in every particular. It is our intention to make the paper in the future not only, more interesting and better, but one of still more success. We intend conducting it is heretofore, independent in every thing and neutral in nothing.

And we will say to our Subscribers and Advertisers as softly and mildly as we can say it, but as pointedly, earnestly and emphatically as we can mean it, that we would be under many obligations and thanks if all those in arrearages "WOULD COME TO THE CENTRE WITH THE NEEDFUL" money we need. We are like the most of Editors both poor and needy—good wishes and good-wills are very good and pleasant to have and retain; but are not of themselves sufficient to clothe a poor hungry printer, we are like the rest of mortals unable to exist on anything less tangible and substantial than bread and meat. To procure, bread and meat requires money. We do hope, we earnestly and sincerely trust that all those indebted to us will pay up as soon as they conveniently can without too much inconvenience to themselves.

We think that our course heretofore, should be a sufficient guarantee to them that if alive we will continue to publish the NEWS, as we said before "fail or can't" are not in our vocabulary.

DAGUERREAN ARTIST.—Mr. Stuart, Daguerrean Artist is stopping, and intends to remain some few weeks in our Town. He can be found at the Yolo House at all hours. We would simply say to all those wishing pictures taken, (either Ambrotype or Melainotype,) that, they would do well to give him a Call, as soon as, convenient. His work speaks for itself. It needs no flattering encomiums, to give credit or character.

We understand the case of G. Kramer which was brought up before the Grand Jury of Sutter county for the killing of J. B. Lowe was dismissed. The District Attorney I. C. McQuaid made a motion in open Court to re-submit the case to another Grand Jury. The Court ordered the case re-submitted and it will come up before the next Grand Jury.

POISONED.—The seven horses poisoned at Brown's stable, on Sansome street San Francisco, by eating poisoned grain died on Monday last. The horses are valued at $1,400. Two former employes, named John Doyle and John Burke, have been arrested on suspicion.

A CLERGYMAN IN TROUBLE.—Rev. Henry Garratt, curate of a parish church at Chesterfield, England, has been arrested and commited for trial, for stealing about $100 from the church missionary society. He was very hard up, being in debt $3500 for liquors and other creature comforts.

Races.

CENTERVILLE COURSE.—Sacramento.

First Day, Tuesday, April 24th, 1860. Purse $300.—mile heats, between Susy Hawkins, Wm. Hood and Kate Mitchell—was won by Susy Hawkins.

Second Day, Wednesday, April 25th, 1860. Purse $600, two mile heats, between Billy Cheatham and Bonnie Bell, was won by Billy Cheatham in two straight heats.

Third Day, Thursday, April 26, 1860. Match for $10,000, four miles heats between Ashland and Langford, was won by Langford.

The Swamp and Overflowed Lands.

The question of segregating the Swamp and Overflowed Lands of this State, from the public domain, is, one, that, has for some considerable time occupied the attention, of many of our most sagacious Statesman; and much, labor has been done, and many efforts put forth by our representatives in Congress to accomplish this one thing, which, heretofore has been abortive.

That, it has not been effected is no particular fault of California Statesmen; but, mainly depending on that "old slow paced affair Uncle Sam's Government."

We happen to allude to it, just, now, because, we happen to think of it; and because we also can see no reason why the General Government is so tardy in its action on this matter. By way of parenthesis, we would say, that we greatly fear, that, "UNCLE SAM" FEELS VERY LITTLE SYMPATHY WITH AND FOR CALIFORNIA. After being enriched by the prodigious treasures of California (by the acquisition of which State, star upon star, has been added, to the proud constellated galaxy of the Noble Sisterhood of States;) and after having the commerce of the nation increase two fold, by the possession of our grand and transcendent State, IT IS of very bad grace (to say the least of it) for the General Government to exhibit so little interest, in the weal or woe of its best, noblest and most loyal daughter.

We are however glad to state that Jos. S. Wilson, Commissioner of the Land Office, appears to take considerable interest, in this matter and, as he stands, first and alone outside of our own people, of all the officers of General Government that have even manifested any interest in this matter, we deem it but just and due him to insert the following extract from a letter of his to the Hon. John C. Burch; dated March 13th, 1860.

"In reference to the subject," [of the complete segregation of the Swamp and Overflowed Lands from the Public Domain.]

I would remark that the subject of swamp lands, within said State, was very elaborately considered, when H. A. Higley, Esq., State Surveyor-General was here in December last, and full and specific instructions under date of 10th of that month were forwarded to J. W. Manderville, United States Surveyor General, at San Francisco, with a view to an energetic and prompt dispatch of the work. In addition to this, a general amendatory bill on the subject of swamp lands was also recommended to Congress on the 1st inst., to which reference is respectfully made. This, together with instructions above referred to will, it is believed, fully meet the demands of the swamp grant in California, and serve to bring the matter to a speedy termination.

I will take pleasure in preparing the draft of a bill in accordance with any terms you may be pleased to suggest, but am unable to suggest any more efficient means than that on foot, if aided by the enactment of the provisions of the bill above mentioned. With great respect,

Your obedient servant
JOS. S. WILSON.
Commissioner.

Nor is the question of the speedy drainage of these lands of less importance to the GREAT INTEREST OF OUR STATE. At present a large portion of the best land in the State is a useless waste, and it will ever remain so, unless, it is drained properly and effectively. Now, it does not matter materially, by whom, or how it is done, so it is accomplished, perfectly, and thoroughly, as far as, regards, the great good, that, its accomplishment would entail upon the great interests of the State, at large. A good deal of opposition appears to be manifested and felt by our people against monopolies and franchises; and the two terms seem to be confounded in the minds of almost all. Hence when a little franchises by way of a bonus is granted an individual or Corporation in order to have a great and important work or thing done, that, will redown greatly, unmistakably, to the lasting weal of the whole State. We hear loud and clamorous complaints from every quarter against whatever body, that, grants it no matter how much they State is benefited thereby. And none the less loud and vituperative are those vile scurrilous, soulless and often brainless sheets that flood our land—greatly to the detriment of many good and wholesome enterprises that are by them held in check, or defeated. What we were going to say in regard to the drainage of these lands a moment ago, is this, it would be much better to give a large franchise to a company or companies that would reclaim them than to let them remain a useless waste; provided, that it was the only alternative; but as things now stand we can see no reason why the State herself cannot reclaim them, herself within herself and make by the operation a handsome thing of it. We are no advocate for monopolies; nor are we a special pleader for franchises; but we dislike for the terms to be confounded they are not synonimous. We are never in favor of granting great and exclusive privileges without a resulting benefit, tantamount to or greater than the one confered. We believe, that, the State is the proper and only legitimate party to drain these lands which it can easily do by letting out the same in numerous small contracts to the lowest bidders, to suit the different circumstances and exigencies, that may be incidental or connected with each particular case.

If there is any special or particular benefit agoing, to inure to any one that does this work, the State, unquestionably, has the best and strongest claims to that benefit. This proposition no one will for a moment deny. Then let the State see to one of its first and most important interests, as soon as, practicable; and devise one of the cheapest, most economical and best plans for said drainage; having an eye single all the while to the future greatness of the State.

We heard only a few days ago, some objections raised against the drainage of the Swamp Lands, and had it not been from the source whence they eminated we might in all probability have passed them by unnoticed, but, having, as, we always have had, and as we still have the greatest deference and respect for their author's general good sense and sound judgment; we must in the just vindication of truth (as we think) dissent from and answer his objections and this, we do with the kindest feelings and in the most urbane spirit imaginable.

The first of these objections that, we shall notice was "that if the tules (swamps) were drained that the land would be worthless for Agricultural purposes." The second was, "If they were drained it would destroy the largest part of the grazing resourses of the Country." The third was "In the event of their being drained said drainage would have a tendency to drain and absorb so great amount of moisture from the now arable lands, that, the whole country would be dried up so effectively, that, it would be impossible to raise anything even on our present most furtile and productive lands." The first objection is without any foundation whatever, for any one at all in the least acquainted with Agriculture knows that the tule is the richest most productive and easiest cultivated of any land that we have. In the second objection there is some plausibility; yea an immense amount of logic to those few RICH NABOBS that are scattered sparsely over our country, whose substance is mostly invested in their bands of cattle and horses—whose herds are upon all the hills far and near—whose every thought is for and about grass—verily they believe that the world was made for grass, and nothing but grass—they think so much about grass that it is a miracle that they don't turn to grass. Their interest is not the interest of the masses. They eschew a dense population, because it will fence up and improve the country and away goes their favorite, the grass!

We say give us all the arable land, possible, encourage settlement, improvement and a dense population of Agriculturists, that is what we want—that is what the country demands.

The third objection pre-supposses a principle as novel and strange in theory as it is possible in the nature of things to be; nor is it less philosophically and logically incorrect and unsound in practice. The drainage of the tules would have no appreciable effect whatever upon either the aridity or moisture of the surrounding country.

For a refutation of this position we challenge a successful contradiction.

In conclusion we would say that we will not be at all displeased if a part of the tule Lands of Yolo County are drained by a Company at an early day. We are glad that a moity of them in certain localities have been granted to the San Francisco and Marysville Railroad Company we are certain that it will benefit all concerned.

Death of John O'Meara.

We learn from the Sacramento Union of the 21st inst. that Mr. JOHN O'MEARA died in New York a few weeks, ago, (the exact date not given). The deceased was an old an highly esteemed resident of this State. He was our former State Printer which office he filled with much ability as well as general satisfaction to his constituency. All that knew him respected and esteemed him as a man and as a faithful public servant upon whom they could depend. He was a man of extraordinary business capacity energy and uniting industry. He possessed a fine reputation as a sterling man of business, whose honor was unimpeachable and whose honesty was unquestioned. In his death California loses one of her best, most dutiful and intrinsically useful sons.

MAY PARTY.

The Pupils of the Union and Cottonwood Schools, will have a PIC-NIC on the 1st of May, (Tuesday next,) near Cache Creek, immediately next to Dr. E. C. Lane's. The inhabitants of Cottonwood District—the various Schools throughout the county, and the friends of Education generally, are invited to attend and participate.

The State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Hon. Humphrey Griffith and others have been invited to be present and address the assemblage.

Those children of the District who have not attended either School, as well as those who have, are solicited to meet at the Cottonwood School House, on Tuesday, May 1, at 9 o'clock, A.M., and march to the Ground with the Pupils. C. A. TEMPLETON, } Teachers
M. A. WOODS, }
Cottonwood, April 21st, 1860.

We are pleased to have the pleasure of inserting the above Notice of a May Party; for there are few, if any, social gatherings that we like to attend better than May Parties. Even the thought of them appears to infuse into our innermost soul thrilling ecstatic emotions in no-wise, unpleasant or disagreeable; especially, when we think of them, in days gone by, in connection with many concomitant, circumstances and the incidents therewith, linked and conjoined, securely kept, in the most retentive recesses of our memory.

We admire May Parties for another reason, they encourage and cultivate social intercourse acquaintance and good feelings among the Juvenile portion of our population, perhaps to better advantage than any parties of similar or dissimilar character.

QUEER OPERATION FINANCIALLY.—J. G. Doll, of Red Bluff, was interested or represented in the sum of $20,000 in a claim rescently before the Legislature, which was allowed. We understand that to insure the passage of the bill he was, by Senator and ex-Governor Latham, recommended to James Hawkins (ex-Sergeant-at-Arms,) a lobby member of the Legislature; that Doll knowing only one Cyril Hawkins, Enrolling Clerk of the Senate, addressed him in this relation, and to secure his valuable services paid him $250, promising (should he work) to pay the same amount on the passage of the bill. Hawkins (Cyril) was elate with the idea that he had greater influence than he had given himself credit for, and having made no move in the matter of passing the bill, is willing to accord Mr. Doll all due acknowledgments of the payment of the last enstalment. We should mention in this connection that the (alleged) appointee of Senator Latham is disgusted that he should have done the work and received no renumeration therefor, whereas the non appointee did no work and received all the honor—$500 in clean cash. Politically speaking, this is a financial operation hard to beat. Under the peculiar circumstances, probaly no complaint will be made on either side.—Union.

THE amount of money in the State Treasury on the 21st was $555,550,46.

DURING the fortnight which ended on Saturday last, 28,487 ounces of gold bullions, to the value of $230,000, were deposited in the Mint; 4,524 ounces of silver bullion were purchased, and $651,000 coined in gold.

AN IMPOSTER.—The La Porte Messenger says an imposter, calling himself Cook, has been trying to palm himself off in that place upon the Masonic fraternity as a member of the order.

The San Francisco and Marysville Railroad.

Knowing, that, any and every thing connected with this enterprise, is read with much interest by the people, unanimously, we copy the following article from the Marysville Express, being well satisfied that it contains nothing, but, FACTS, the most reliable and correct in every particlar that can at present be obtained.

Twenty-one miles of the road is now graded and ready for the cross-ties—twelve miles of that portion in Sutter county, four in Yolo, and five in Solano, and the grading is now progressing at the rate of ten or twelve miles per month. The contracts for the grading in Sutter county expired on the first of June, those in Yolo and Solano expired on the first of July. The contractors in Sutter expect to complete their work in about a month. Those in Yolo and Solano are confident that their work will be finished before their time expires. Bunting and Watson, T. J. Sherwood, and Nelson & Patterson are the contractors for Sutter, and when completed there will be seventeen miles of continous grading in that county. James O'Brien has the contract for Yolo, including twenty miles. Four miles are now graded, and the work is progressing at the rate of a mile per week. Hickok & Co, are the contractors for Solano, but they have sub-let their contract to several parties. The length of their contract is twenty miles, five miles of which are completed, and the work is progressing at the rate of a mile and half per week.

Should these contracts be completed before their expiration, the entire road to Suisun City will be graded with the exception of two and a half miles of the tule lands in Sutter county, which will be graded as soon as the dry weather sets in and their condition will admit of it. The iron is purchased, and a part of it is expected to arrive in a short time. The rolling stock is ordered, and will be here by the time the grading is completed. The road is represented to be on a firm and solid basis. There are three hundred thousand dollars of available stock in the hands of private parties. Yuba and Solano counties have subscribed two hundred thousand dollars each, thus making the total amount of available stock seven hundred thousand dollars. This, together with the splendid donations of land made by the State to the road, with other resourses, is considered ample to secure the construction of the road We are informed that it is the intention of the Company to commence laying the iron as soon as the grading is completed. The work will be commenced at Suisun City, Marysville, and the Sacramento river. Starting from the latter point the track will be laid in both directions, that is to say, towards Marysville and Suisun, so that the work will progress as rapidly as possible. About one hundred hands are now at work on the road.

An Interesting Match.

The most interesting event that came off on Wednesday last upon the Centerville Course, was a match for five thousand dollars a side, two mile heats, to be run in the fall of '63, between the '59 get of Billy Cheatham and Belmont. Cheatham is backed by Mr. W. A. J. Gift, and Belmont by Mr Williamson. It is understood that Mr. Gift is looking to a fine Cheatham colt out of the dam of Susy Hawkins, droped about three weeks ago; and that Col. Williamson made the match with particular reference to a Belmont colt about a month old, out of his old mare Liz. Givens. Why not gentlemen, make it a sweepstake, so as to let in Lawyer, and Jack Hawkins, and such others as choose to enter.—Standard.

THE

KNIGHT'S LANDING NEWS.

Pew Talk and Church Scandal.

That tall young fellow's here to-day!
I wonder what's his name?
His eyes are fixed upon our pew—
Do look at Sally Dame.

Who is that lady dressed in green?
It can't be Mrs. Leach;
There's Mrs. Jones and Deacon Giles!
I wonder if he'll preach.

Lend me your fan it is so warm;
We both will sit to prayers;
Mourning becomes the widow Ames—
How Mary's bonnet flares.

Do look at Nancy Slooper's veil!
It's full a breadth to wide;
I wonder if Susannah Ayres
Appears to-day as a bride?

Lord! what a voice Jane Rice has got?
Oh, how that organ roars;
I'm glad we're left the singer's seats—
How hard Miss Johnson snores.

What ugly shawls are those in front?
Did you observe Ann Wild?
Her new straw bonnet's trimmed with black,
I guess she's lost a child.

I'm half asleep—that Mr. Jones!
His sermons are so long;
This afternoon we'll stay at home
And practice that new song.
